May 2, 2012

WASHINGTON — The United States Mint today announced plans for the release of the new 2012 American Eagle San Francisco Two-Coin Silver Proof Set. This historic set will contain one silver proof coin and one silver reverse proof coin, both bearing the “S” mint mark of the United States Mint at San Francisco. The coins, struck in 99.9 percent silver, will be mounted in a custom blue lacquer presentation case accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity.

There will be no household order limit, with sets being produced to meet demand. Pricing will be finalized close to the set’s on-sale date of June 7, 2012, and will be based on the market price of silver at the time. The United States Mint has established a four-week ordering window, beginning June 7 at noon (ET) and ending July 5 at 5 p.m. (ET). Orders will begin shipping in late July.

Orders for the 2012 American Eagle San Francisco Two-Coin Silver Proof Set will be accepted at <http://www.usmint.gov/catalog> or at 1-800-USA-MINT (872-6468).
